SHIMABUU'S THE WAY YOU DRAW MANGA IS SOMETHING LIKE THIS!

1 NAME EDITION ①

◦ First, you make an itemized list of the general story elements and simple plot details. (You can use a regular college-ruled notebook and mechanical pencil for this.)
If you need to, write out the characters' expressions and that sorta thing.
At this point, you still have plenty of time until the deadline, so this is the fun part! :D Wohoo!
In my case, I usually do this part of the job at a family restaurant. Weekday nights tend to be relatively free for me. So if all goes well in this stage before I get into the full-blown Name (storyboard), then drawing the Name goes much more smoothly.
BUT! Around here when there's way less time until the deadline, I end up rushing and I get conscious of the commotion around me. Then I get distracted and it gets harder and harder to get anything done... In times like that, I change locations and do it quietly at home. Things like that.
